

TUESDAY EVENING, MAY 12.

THE TUNNEL FIGHT WON.

The bill providing for the ventilation and lighting of the Fourth Avenue Rallway reply. Tunnel has become a law, having received yesterday the signature of Gov. ers Thus is completed another hardest and most protracted fight which THE EVENING WORLD has ever carried to a finish. The public is to be congratulated have been in force ten years ago. For nine of those years the New York Central has been running in direct and reckyet none has been found, THE EVENING WORLD stepped into the breach, to take up the cause of the people's safety and carry it to success.

on is told in detail in other columns to-day, the story does not need repetition here, THE EVENING WORLD EX its felicitations to the people it serves. It desires to ex press also its warm appreciation of Suzzes, who introduced the original Tunnel bill and of the hearty co-operation of Assemblyman Walten Bynne, Schator AREARN and others during the struggle in

Gov. Hill's approval of the bill is gratimeasure's use and importance, but as evithe people's good.

Flipping a penny for $1,000 a flip is pretty on the toss of a cent is worse than bacca-

Col. ROBERT INCERSOLL was not allowed to deliver a Sunday-night lecture in Pittsburg. The Chief of the Department of Public Safety there said that he might just as she sprang up. as well open a theatre for a theatrical performance on Sunday as to let INGERSOLL lecture, Can it be that he thinks Mr. In GERSOLL is an actor ?

borne by GEORGE M. PULLMAN. vividly this charge brings to mind the monwealth whose pride it is that he himself always " pays the freight."

It is instructive to read in the report of prize-fight that "a barbed wire fence sep- that I have been idiot enough to change my arated the chesper seats from the higher- Winter socks too soon and have struck a priced ones." Is it that the conductors of the affair knew their patrons so well?

A San Francisco paper has these two planks in a proposed platform for 1892 : and common sense for American politics.

It is charged that McKINLEY basn't humor enough to be really popular in Ohio. Evidently his Tariff bill hasn't been thoroughly studied out there.

ing burglars. A case of sympathy among fellow-spoilsmen, perhaps.

Our Giants kept the Pittsburg smoke out of their eyes yesterday, anyway.

fire. He has cleared $6,030,901 on the London

[From the Rider and Driver,] "Teople who go to the Park to watch the Harrison may not be "tripping in his speech," arriages must not expect to be noticed by the people who ride in them."

Samh Bernhardt is always paradoxical. Her fat

And so Go I. William's young worden says also coaches him

Even if they get to running bicycles by electricit the abock from a header won't be any greater.

"I am taying to put a good face on this," said the Choose taundrymen draw the line at "doing up

He Sat too Far Away

Mr. Prosey (treating his best girl to a ride)-You know Smith? He's too liberal; the trouble with him is that he's not close enough or his own good.
Miss Spooney-That's just your fault, dear; route not close enough yourself.

(And Prosey suddenly became allent, wondering just what she meant.) Something Unusual.

[From the Epoch.] Mrs. Biossom-How acculiarly your bushand acts? Is he intoxicated?
Mrs. Buzzer.-No, he is sober; and it's the first time I've seen him that way in years.

SKETCHES BY

"Did you say anything to the parties who came to rent the house before you The Convalescing Colonel Relates moved out $" asked a Brooklyn landlord of an ex-tenant whom he met on the street. " Nothing to injure the house," was the Well, it's very queer that none of them came back. Did you speak of the heat-"Why, I merely said that two of the victory for the people, and that after the family froze to death last Winter while I was burning twenty-two tons of coal."

" And the roof ?" " It leaks in sixteen different places, but I didn't show 'em but five or six.' "And the plumbing ?"

"On, I had rags tied around the pipes where they leaked. Nobody got onto the plumbing.

"And the neighborhood ?" "Cracked it way up; didn't happen to less disregard of a Grand Jury's man- be a row on either side while anybody was looking through,"

> "Not a one. All of 'em happened to have sore eyes and preferred a subdued light." "Well, it's very, very queer. Here it is way along in May, and that house stands empty yet. I guess I'll have to get a new

He Wasn't Pa.

agent to take charge."

A Third avenue train was whooping along above Forty-second street when a child about three years old, who was held in its the work done by Assemblyman William mother's lap, looked fixedly at the gentleman on her right, and called out :

"Ma! ma! That ain't my pa, is it !" "No, no! Hush, dear?" chided the nother

"His breff just smell like pa's doesthat's all!" continued the child as she sniffed to get another scent of it.

About fourteen passengers heard her re marks, and they gazed at the man with a "breff" so fixedly that he got up and

Why He Shivered.

They sat on a bench in Madison Square Park as the sun went down and the bright stars twinkled in the sky like new ten-cent steep gambling for Boston town. After a pieces held up to so many knot-holes. New Bedford man had lost $15,000 by this Vehicles rumbled, newsboys shouted, hudippancy he staked $10,000 against his manity passed and repassed, but what was opponent's winnings, and his adversary earth to them? Her Grecian face was upwon again. Twenty-five thousand dollars turned in such a way that the freekle on her nose was in the shadow, while he clasped her hand and bent his hazel eyes thoughtful atmosphere of the Hub! The on the toothpick toes of his patent leathers as suddenly as if a cat had been dropped from a fourth-story window, a shiver ran through his manly frame.

"Alfred, what is it?" she cried in alarn

He was silent. "Alfred, do you doubt my love ?"

He shivered again. "You do-you do! You have discovere that Algernon Hawkins sent me a six shil-The Washington Post asserts that the ex- ling bouquet, and you conclude that I intend | had been kept out of the grave by artificial penses of the President's trip are being to shake you! Oh! Alfred, what can I say

"Sit down, darling!" he interrupted, in virtues of that statesman of our own com- a voice as rich as Mississippi bottom lands. But you doubt me!"

Shaving It Close.

Having got one, he put the figures down

"I see," he said, as he returned the per lots of lather-no talk!" M. QUAD.

Roads to Happiness

(From the Rider and Driver,)

"You never saw any horseback riding do:

Giving the Go By.

"Why not""
"How can the latter help going by the

Off Color.

I From Smith, Gray & Ca.'s Monthly, 1

Tallor-Why not? It fits you all right, doe

Reciprocity.

Yea."
Well, he's just been swearing at mc."
that's merely his friendlines

Dreams Vs. Nightmares.

" Is that your parrot ?"

freamed of you last night.

'How much for half a shave?'

"Lend me a pencil, will you?"

Fifteen cents."

'Thight cents."

in church ?"

" No, darling !" By aint of much coaxing Col. Murphy was "Then-then, why these shivers ?" " Nothing, my birdling-nothing, except induced to give a complete history of his case. In 1887, when he was apparently in full health and tipped the scale at 198 pounds, Col. Murphy had frequent attacks of excruciating pains be-

"How much for a shave here?" he asked

Henna to-day, Col. Murphy said fervently:

more of a friend than a physician to me. He ciated. knew my poverty, and though he has attended me faithfully all these months, he has never trestment by washing out the stomach with tepid water by means of a sort of siphon, which, when withdrawn from the o-sophagus, drew the water out again from the stomach. Col. Murphy was a candidate for re-election o the Senate in the Fifth District that Fall, skirt. mence of the over-exertion, and, to use his and he actually canvassed the district, but on the month to the stomach, a stricture having been formed in the exceptegus. Col. Murphy would drink a plot of milk, and aperture still left by the stricture, but the rest and come out again at the mouth. This was o, even during the Senatorial canvasa. Early in January, 1890, however, by the accidental swallowing of a grape seed, this little aperture was entirely closed, and after that the sufferer was obliged to take nourishment by enemic injection.

thus administered each day. Day by day the merry Colonel wasted and weakened, and late in June Chief inspector Byrnes, his lifelong friend, accured a refuge for his last days in a Saratoga house, and the patient was taken there to die. He occurred are the embroidered itsees and crepes wrough does that so you can swear back at him. He cally at the room where John Morrissey died at the

Sept. 1 Col. Murphy, dying of statvation, elected to return to New York, and here, at the home of his niece, the fight between his NINE DOLLARS TO DRESS WELL. wanderful vitality and dread siscase was con-Eshing for more) What could have made you it. Henna had called in Drs. Janeway. Lincoln, the ex-Senator revived for several days, then he sank again, but held out till Dec. 18, when it was found that the passage Here Is a Point of the admission of nourishment by enems was collapsing, and that the injections must be to remember—Rood's Sarsspurills is a modern aboutoned.

Much bedicing, originated by thoroughly competent Now, it was apparent that Col. Murphy must strictly pure, and is consistent of the roots and herbs are care sible to buy. All the roots and herbs are care fully selected, are ground in our own drugmill, and from the time of purchase until Hood's far separalla is prepared, exprything is watched to attain the lose possible result.

Hood's care apartils is sold by druggists. Prepared by C. I. Hood's conductive the Senator's life.

It was no less than the opening of the pation in a similar case. It was an operation that A.Co. would like to prove to you that you had never been performed in America, and he afford it under their present price list. 100 Doses One Dollar It was no less than the opening of the panture been soid at such low prices as are offered at the stand low prices at the stand low prices are offered at the stand low prices at the stand low prices are of the stand low prices at the stan tient's stomach, and on Dec. 18 this was done.

Cot. Murphy weighed 9s pounds that day, but SPORTING NEWS AND NOTES. CHANGES AT THE THEATRES.

They made an opening large enough to admit the hands, and Dr. Weir found, as was anticiated, that the patient's stomach had collapsed and lay not against Cot. Murphy's spine. tunny pictures showing Succi exclaiming, oreat Garibaldi! My stomach has grown fast to my spine, ' and now that was my condion," Col. Murphy said.

Dr. Weir actually pinned the sagging waits of Col. Murphy's stomach to his intestines, apidly recovering from a disease that was using two pins of gold, each four inches long, stitching of the stomach to the intestines, and with brilliant work at the bat and in the field. then a half inch silver tube was inserted in the abdominal wound, a rubber tube was attached and from that time down to 3 weeks ago Col. Murphy was fed through this tabe, a mamold solder is like a fairy tale, almost incredible | moto glass syringe being used for the purpose. The ulcer in the stomach had been cured by a wash of nitrate of silver, administered daily. Murphy at the home of his meee, 44 East Thir- a perilous treatment, for the wash had to be numped out of the stomach again at a certain moment or its poison would have killed the made more sunny by the presence of this kept open, and is still kept open by the inser- Anson's leaders in Chicago a setback which audience with it. It is company did good work. aloce, who was most appropriately christened tion of a sound, consisting of a jet bulb, like a plumb-bot, on the end of a whalebone rod clubs to date. Col. Murphy was in his night robe, and later, that is inserted into the assophagus 2336 inches after the witndrawal of the attentive good once each week, and must be for a year to newspapers five months ago I'm better than a eggs, a now! of catmeal, biscuits, a quart of milk and two cups of coffee. For funca he Club will make a very speedy runner. Recently It is no exageration to say that Col Murphy's enjoys half a shad roe, cold meats, fried po- without any training he ran from the two-yard

But his big, broad topped, rugged and He rides out every day, and takes a walk beknotty head was as big as ever, and all out of sides. He walks without help, of course, but pretty good shaps last night. roportion to the wasted little body and thin is always accompanied by a young man, who eck that supported it. Is on hand in case of need. Sunday, Col. The even were as keen and full of expression | Murphy walked lifteen blocks, and yesterday as ever though, and the donguty Colonel was he rode down to the Inckory Club, where he

every morning since his confinement began in polices of a coming meeting of the First Ashis days were numbered and the number Democracy which made him smile, for he is could be counted on his fingers without repeti- | Chairman of that organization, and the call was lastied in bis name a legislator at Aibany and was not beaten in a dollar," said Col. Murphy, this morning. on election till he was said to be in the very 'If it were not for Tom Byrnes, Judge Mau-jaws of death, was enjoying a flow Havana, rice J. Power and one or two other of my good and in his old-fashioned way he invited the friends I should have been obliged to go to a was Colonel of the Corcoran Legion, promoted as many days as Sig. Giovanni Succi fasted, in 1868 at suffolk. He served in the Army of the Polomac from April, 1861, to June, 1864. "Oh, I think you'd better get shad roe fo He is a member of Snields Post, G. A. R., of the Sixty-ninth Regiment Veteran Corps; of the Society of the Arms of the Revolution and able to take something into my stometh in the Fads, Fashions and Fancies That Delight the Gentler Sex.

> The dress skirt of the hour is a duplex affair, consisting of a foundation double-faced and braid-and the "drop" of material, so called cause it drops from the same belt as the lining, without tacking or pinning.

head of enamel or chased gold, with fine lew-

Suggested by the lace butterfiles and birds' ming hats and the bodies of fine dresses. They are costly, require very careful handling ·· I want to say that Dr. Henna has been and a nice degree of culture to be appre-

button gloves are sufficient for all ordinary

Get a black leghorn and plant a branch of Ribbon bows are sewed all over house and dinner dresser. They loop up lace flounces and suk ruffles, ornament shoulders and cuffs. and frequently run down the side seam of the

The Grecian fillet of ribbon is an effective ornament for lacies with a finely shaped head we words his defeat on that occasion was of who adopt the popular mode of heal dress, the little mement to him, as his death was said to riopon is placed over a flat kind of wire, which bends to the shape of the head and is invisibly fastened in the back by means of a hair wi

Washable frocks no longer wash, as fine this suittle would filter through the small ginghams and organdles have fitted linings, The foundation skirts are of sateen, with slightly draped or plain fronts and gathered

> Nightgowns, with tucked yokes and little trills of lace, are on sale in the local shops for Jewelled laces are among the new things of mixed and made finid with warm water, was gether play their part. Flying birds and bonwrought in beads and jewels, are among the principal patterns into which these jewels are introduced. A potent rival to laces, however, in gold, and some of these have feather borderings, new and pretty, but decidedly casily

Wonderfully Low Prices for Fine Clothes for Men and Boys.

Mack & Co. , the clothiers at Broadway an Grand street, asseverate that they are prepared to show that if the fold saw is true, that ""! takes nine tailors to make a man," it doesn' take more than nine dollars to ciothe him. In fact, they repeatedly demonstrate that a man can dress himself and his pet boy, too.

in the West. Vokes at Daly's.

Berkeley A. C.'s Coming Games-General Cub Gossip.

It has been already mentioned in these collike their old-time gast. They gave further and "My Lord in Livery" was the triple bill evidence of it vesterday in their game with offered to the public by dafnty Rosina Vokes a Pittsburg, playing an almost errorless game, Daly's Theatre last night, and a highly enjoy-The score was 9 to 2 in their favor.

deserve the credit for the game, for in the fourth and fifth inning they knocked home through the latter's loose playing by the score Mr. Mansfield revived "A Paristan Romance"

In the American Association St. Louis dropped a game to Bailimore, 8 to 4; Boston Harlem, last ni; L. It is well known to the beat Columbus, 7 to 4; Washington walloped theatre-goers of this city, but it is still vital,

Adolph Kauder, of the Stuyvesant Athleti

Larkins was in it not only a little bit, but i

The next big event will be the finish fight between Pat Daly and Nick Collins.

Austin Globons the Paterson boy, by his net unassuming manners has become quite favorite in London.

Jim Galligan was released by the Troy Cini account of the r having eight pitchers. One of the greatest mistakes that the New York Cluo made this season was to release tig Bill Brown.

This pleasant weather is bringing out the This city is now flooded with Philadelph money and the way tuose boys did drop it magen was startling to behold.

The New York and Brooklyn clubs began with a promise of nolding tueir ends up in pretty good snape in the West.

Tommy Danforth was a very enthusi-eff-young men last night at the Hagen-Lartins ignt, and he attracted considerable attention by its surfact coaching. He had been there himself and knew how it felt.

Sunday is a great day with the bicycle men as well as the carsinen, although they are both setting in their good work these long evenings The Berkeley Athletic Club is making exten-

The Newark Lodge of Elks will give John L utilivan's case their special attention to-night

Jimmy flagen is now of the opinion that Jer

The entries for the second annual Sprin meeting of the Berkeley Athletic Club, walch will be held next Saturday at the Berkely Oval, closed on May 9, officially, but such a quan-lity of adulthonal entries have been received during the last twelve hours that the committee have decided to accept them, and the entire list will be placed in the hands of Handicapper

Carter at once.

So far it looks as if this meeting would excel even that of last year, which was the finest meeting of its kind ever held in this cout try. Princeton and columbia enter their full inter-cullegists teams. The New York Athletic Chao subers about fifty myo, and the Mannatian likewise. The prizes are of unusual beauty.

Nick Middleton in three founds; Robert Burns, of Bronsipn, in two rounds; Bully Oakley, at Flatoush, in five rounds; Sam McCloskey in seven rounds; fournt a bare kunskle first with Stiffiam Crimston and beat itm in filteen rounds, beat Charley Traner at Ridgewood, Lang Island, in two rounds; waipped George Satchel, London rules, in two rounds, lasting fitten minutes; beat Joe Fronklin (colored), of this city, it six rounds; fought Robert Burns a second time under London rules and deteated him in seven rounds. Issuing two hymmitists beat Sam McCounds. under London rules and defeated him in seven rouncs, lasting twenty minutes; best Sam Mc-Croakey, of Brooklyn, in two rounds; Johnny Manon in three rounds. He went to England and fought Tom Smith, better known as Tommy Rounshead, of Barking, whom he defeated in one and a half rounds.

I From Brooklyn Life. He (passionately)—One kine before I yo. She (disgustedly)—Well, if you do not want to kiss me more than once you ared not kiss me at all.

Ambiguous. (From Brooklyn Life,)
Clerk (to patent medicine man)—Here is carious credential from one of our customers.

Medicine Man - K-alif.
Clerk - 'B-fore I took your Elixiv my face was sught. You ought to see it how. Send me another bettle for my mother-in-law."

[From Brooklyn Life.]
Day—A friend of mine has patented an appli ance to enable a girl to play on two planes at once.

Week —Was there anything in it?

Day—Yes; he got six months.

Richard Mansfield in "A Parislan Romance" at the Garden.

DALY'S. "Percy Pendragon," "My Militner's Bill" able bill it was, too. Nothing in Miss Vokes's repertoire is so charming as "My Millinet's This was the beginning of their first Western Bilt," a comedictia with which we now associ our. Brooklyn also got there yesterday, sail- ate her. She sung "His 'Art Was True ! ing into Cincinnati in a way that surprised the | Poll" as billiely and as gracefully as ever. GARDEN THEATRE.

Romance" has always been a favorite one runs, which netted the Grooms six runs and with Richard Mansfield. He has won much won the game. The score was 7 to 5.

fame with it. It gives to his really admirable
The Philadelphians defeated Cleveland dramatic ideas unlimited scope. Last night The stricture in the Alsophagus had been of 5:08, and the boys from Beantown gave at the Garden Theatre and entertained a large COLUMBUS TREATRE.

"A Midnight Bell," Hoyt's play, began a week's engagement at the Columnus Theatre, the robe, displaying a pair of legs, startling robe days after the operation of Dec. 22, in their emerication.

The robe displaying a pair of legs, startling robe days after the operation of Dec. 22, in the Louisvilles, 14 to 1. Standings up to the Louisvilles, 14 to 1. Standings up to the liming nature. The school-house scene is a delightful piece of work, and it always "goes." competent one. WINDSOR THEATRE.

"Little Lord Fauntieroy" has been giving MANN us a long rest, but last night be reappeared in "Little Lord Fauntleroy" has been giving this city, and was seen at the Windsor Theatre. Mrs. Frances Hodgson Burnett's play was so good that it became the craze, and the trouble with crazes is that they wear themselves out.

'Little Lord Fauntlefor," however, was received with much approval last night. Ray Maskell was the Cedric Errol. U. B. JACOBS' THEATRE.

B. E. JACOBS' THEATRE.

Sweet intle Ger is Homan was the star at R.

R. Jacobs' Theatre last night. She appeared as Edities in Gas Thomas's four-act coinedy drama, known as "The Eurglar." Little Gertie is a clever and winsome actress, and her Editha is a beautiful bit of child-acting. A. S.
Lipman appeared as Bul Lewis. "The Burglar" slways has a grosperous career. It was well put upon the stage.

GRAND OFER-SHOUSE.

GRAND OFFIX-HOUSE.

Lydis Thompson spheared in her farce-comcity, "The Dazsier," at the Grand OperaHouse hist high, She "dazzled" a large audience, as she so well knows how to de. Her dancing was graceful and sprightly, and she is wise enough to give us very little vocal enterialsment. Her dompany is an excellent one, and the succitation introduced by its various members are lively and smeshig. FOURTEENTH STREET THEATER.

"Nordeck" was the play at liammerstein's liarlem Opera-House last night, the star being the ever-popular Frank Mayo. "Nordeck" is an incressing play, with well-mannaved situations and dialogue that possesses much literary merit. Mr. Mayo was well supported. He will repeat "Nordeck" to-night and to-morrow night. The rest of the week will be devoted to "Dayy Crockett." TONY PASTOR'S.

The warm weather did not keep the people away from Tony Pastor's last night. They ficked there, as usual, and were well rewarded. The programms included Frank Bush, the ever-interesting: Flora Moore, "the great" Larry Dolly, the Midgleys, the Morley Irio; A. G. Buncan, a highly entertshing ventriloquist: Lord and Howe, the Fluzgibbon sisters and Adrian, a magician.

DORIS'S MUSKE.

''La Mascoite'' was sung four times yesterday at Doris's Eighth Avenue Musee, and weil aung too. The cast was as follows: Bettina, Miss Alice Maxwell; Flametta, Miss Gertruue Sanger; Frederica, Miss Florence Snerwood; Rocco, Thomas Whyte; Pippe, Harry Lungard; Mathio, W. H. Conklin; Purufante, Miss Jennie Miller, and Lorenzo, James H. Donnelly, Doris's specialty company gave a vaude-ville performance.

WORTH'S WISSIN.

A six days' rowing match was begun at Hu-her's Palace Museum resterday. Th' contest-ants were women, who used road-sculing ma-chines, and recorded the mices as last as they were made by a clever mechanical contrivance. Other attractions were Souvelle, 'who handles KOSTKE AND BIAL'S. Sherman and Morrissey, the well-known comedians; Lithe Westera, John LoClair, the shadowgraphis; Dixon and Lang, and Paul Laville were among the specialty artists at Koster & Bial's concert hall last night. Carmeouta danced three of her delightful Spanish dances, and Jenne Jorce appeared as Adam in "Adam's Temptation; or, Birds of Paridise," Brocklyn Theatres.

A collection of amusing absurdities, which A confection of annual above on the many homely truits, is found in "A Texas Steer," One of Hoyl's newst Plays, which was produced at Col. Sun's Park Thewhole was produced at Col. Sun's Park Thempton the Hellington of the English churche, the first annual tree last night. As a fun maker the play is all meeting of the Central Council of Church Hellington Church Hellingto Murphy, Newton Chisnell, Julian Mitchell and Flora Walsh as the prime movers. William S. Twenty boys working at the Bergmann art glass works in Ravenawood are on strike because one of them had been suddenly discherzed. Begmann spective parts.

SOVELTY THEATRE.

KOVELTY THEATRE.

Hoyt's ever-popular "Bunch of Keya" was presented to the Novelty Theatre patrons last inight with a good cast. The irribulations of W. C. Urosbie as the hotel-keeper, were formsided by Ada Bothner, Adic. Reno and Grace Vsturn as the sprightly tunch of keya, and Louis Wesley as the irrepressible tirimes, BURER AND GERIAID" CASING.

The Finest Bread

Oct. Murphy weighed 9s pounds that day, but his spirits were in full health, and he laughed his spirits were in full health, and he laughed his spirits were in full health, and he laughed his spirits were in full health, and he laughed his spirits were in full health, and he laughed his spirits were in full health. Ghanties all the life in the laughed his spirits were in full health. Ghanties all the life in the laughed his spirits were in full health. Ghanties all the life in the laughed his spirits were in full health. Ghanties all the life in the laughed his spirits were in full health. Ghanties all the life in the laughed his spirits were in full health. Ghanties all the life in the laughed his spirits were in full health. Ghanties all the life in the laughed his spirits were in full health. Ghanties all the life in the laughed his spirits were in full health. Ghanties all the laughed his spirits were in full health. Ghanties

BUSINESS BOOMING!

PLENTY OF HELP TO WAIT ON EVERY ONE.

CONTINUATION SALE OF

The Fine Merchant-Tailor Clothing Stock of UNDERHILL, CORNELL &

The role of Baron Caevrial in "A Paristan FINE SUITS, OFFICE COATS AND YESTS, ALPACA COATS OUTING COATS, WHITE VESTS, PANTALOONS, BOYS' SUITS, SAILOR SUITS, YOUNG MEN'S SUITS, Go at About Half Price.

746, 748 and 750 Broadway, corner Astor Place. Bargains at Our Grand Street Store.

UNDERHILL, CORNELL & BROWN.

BROTHERS.

poxing, introducing Pets McCoy and Witliam Burler. The leading parts were taken by Thomas Crossan, Thomas McCane, Charles T. Nicaols, Con Lynch, Elia Gardner and Allos

AMPHION ACADEMY. AMPHION ACADEMY.

"Dr. Bill" who has many friends in Brooklyn made his appearance at the Amphion Academy last night and was accarded a nearly reception. Mr. J. B. Polk as the Dictor was cleverly supported by Mr. J. W. Jennings, Mr. G. W. Reynier, Mr. George Beck, Mr. Gran, Henjerson, Mr. Jennes Lackaye, Miss Lensis Alien, Miss Louisa Erdidge, Miss Louisa Erdidge, Miss Louisa Alien, Miss Sellim Fatter, Miss Mello Lineard and Miss Sellim Fatter, Miss Mello Lineard and Miss Sellim Fatter, Miss Alien's Kangaroo dance as usual created a furor. Jeremes charming one act piece, "Barbara," preceded the play.

LEE AVENUE ACADEMY.

LEE AVENUE ACADEMY. Gus Williams and John T. Kelly appeared at the Lee Avenue Academy of Music last night in "U & L." The entertainment abounded in specializes, among the clevrest of which was the song and dance by Miss Florrie West. Miss. May Yole was in good voice and rendered a versi selections in a pie-sin manner. Assistant Manager Laurent Howard's benefit will occur next Monday evening, after which the theatre will close for the sensor.

material lower's benefit and included Barney Ferman, the three St. Feitx Sisters, Lizzie Congress of the country, began a week's ingagement in the metropolis last night to the Perform over, "Sieak House." Miss Commiss an actress of skill and experience, and her work was the play st the ever-popul.

"Nordeck " was the play st the ever-popul."

Michael Davitt has resigned from the editorship of the Labor World, his health being impaired brough overwork. A National Pederation of Enginemen will be formed on May 19 at the Granville Hotel, Hanley, England. James McIntyre will be the delegate of Pressmen Union No. 9 to the International Typographic Janventon in Roston

The Brooklyn Plumbers and Gasütters' Union has at present over seven hundred names of good atanding members on its roll.

The Farmers' Allianos has now 2,200 sub-Allianos in the State of Iowa.

The Hat and Capmakers' Union has about 300 men on strike for slateen weeks. Their Executive Committee appeals for financial aid from other abor organizations. On Mamorial Day delegates of D. A. 49, K. of L., will decorate the graves of Wilham A. Horan, the "father of the District," and other well-known de-cased members of the Order.

The Artificial Stone Masons' Union, who recently sought admission to the Central Labor Union, is recreating in memorrable. At the last recting the receipts for dues amounted to $51.30. The condition of the wage workers is improving every year, and as ignorance is emphanted by knowledge the reform will be greater and greater, until we shall binally reach a stage where justice will always prevail.

Branch A of the United Machinists gained eight new nembers hast were and lour candidates were proposed. Arrangements are being much for a dicipit to be held at the park of the Brocklyn Labor Lyceom.

An interesting bill of attractions is presented at Huber & Gebhardt's Casino this works becaded by site. Cryske, a retinerkably clever dancer. Charles H. Duncan is ack again with a new budget of songs, and Flora Hasings is adding to her former sincesses. George Holloway and Minne Schull complete the list.

ROLMES'S STAR THEATHE.

A very popular play is '* Under the Gashight," with lots of taking scenery and many true characters of metropolitan life. It was given by a well-balanced company at the Star Theative last night. There is some locid-rati lusiness—dancing, singing and an exhibition of the star for the property of the property of the former and the Star Theative last night. There is some locid-rati lusiness—dancing, singing and an exhibition of the star for the property of the former and the star through the property of the star for the property of the former must be paid.

Charmeskers' Union No. 144 has requested its members to return the blanks sent out to its local management of the property of the star for the part of the star for the property of the star for the

The increase in membership of Tringraphical Union No. 6, since 1850 has been 450 per cont. To this I. T. U. Home Fund the timon of ministrated at 1977, 85 during the last facal year and which the were paid for funeral benefits. Last weak placed as see deposited and fifteen withdrawing transmission of the ministration of the

Among our many Parlor Scites are some twenty patterns dasigned from the latest and richest styles, so exceedingly tasty, so very novel and elegant that the print, $77 to $150, seemingly, do not represent

We beg an inspection of our Bedroom Saites. An extraordinary variety, included in which are some lifty entirely new styles in ash, natural cherry, an-

Especially attractive and complete is our line of furniture for Dining Rooms. Very stylish Side-boards at $18 and upward: Dining Chairs, uphol-stered in best leather, $3.75. Extension Tables. ide Tables, Couches, China Closets, &c., at won-

Folding Beds. OUR NEW CHIFFONIER AT $25

"Buy of the Maker."

104, 106, 108 WEST 14TH ST.

THE GLEANER. Many people on the "L" trains downtown this morning had the air of having left their coats behind because they hadn't quite appremated how raw the morning was. I sincerely hope the weather is not going to be capricious

I saw a blond young man on Fifty-seventh treet about whose face there was much that looked very familiar. Closer inspection showed that it was Bobbie Van Boskerok with the pointed beard of gold which paed to decorate his face all gone. If Robert only appreciated that he had razored away what gave, him quite an air of distinction the pointed present. They are fragrant and pretty in sweetly pertuning flower in a room. The Columbia Grammar boys trooped around o the Berkeley yesterday and asked Dr. Waite to let his pupils have a holiday, as they had the Oval last week. Visits were made by the tions to the different private schools, the crowd District Assembly No. 3, K. of L., comprising the Local Assembly No. 3, K. of L., comprising the Local Assembly No. 3, K. of L., comprising the Local Assembly No. 3, K. of L., comprising the gathering new augment at each, until quite a slarge increase of membership during the satt two months, and almost every week new assemblies are months, and almost every week new assemblies are organized and surrected chatters returned. streets. They behaved themselves very well, > well. Mr. Dennina's portrait at the Society of American Attists is very good, I hear that the Xavier Coub is to publish a club paper soon. The name has not vet been fully decided noon. The club is a live body

Herbert Denman for a moment. He looked

In the work of housedcaning which Commarble workers and joiners were ordered on strike yesterday at the new Post Office building in ferencing the programment of Jurors Ermard F. Martin is engaged in the second of the programment of Jurors Ermard F. Martin is engaged in the second of Jurors Ermard F. Martin is engaged in the second of Jurors Ermard F. Martin is engaged in the second of Jurors Ermard F. Martin is engaged in the second of Jurors Ermard F. Martin is engaged in the second of Jurors Ermard F. Martin is engaged in the work of Juro removed. One of Mayor Grant will probably soon be seen hanging in its stead.

> William Earl Dodge Stokes, the young millionaire real estate owner and builder, am informed, ass recently joined the Tammany Hall organization in the Eleventh As-Congressional candidate to succeed the late Gen. Spinola. Mr. Stokes is noted for a pecu-Harity of dress quite as distinguishing as was the broad expanse of linen which carned for Gen. Spinola the ulckname of "Shirt Collar." Should Mr. Stokes he elected to Congress he > who has made the magnificent Sajamore Hotel, on Green Island, Lake Gaerie, what it is, has notified me that he is at home at 5 Rast Fourteenth street on Tuesdays, Wennesdays and Fridays this month, after which he will go on the issue, for its interests were at stake.

The law which is now enacted should

How the' fight was initiated and carried fying, not only as an indorsement of the dence of the State Executive's constant walked to the other end of the car. sympathy with great causes which are for rat. To think of such a thing in the gelid, man who lost was not a Bostonian, it is and seemed to be dreaming. All at once, of a Court street barber in Brooklyn. American wages for American workmen, Troy politicians are accused of protectcil. "I save a cent by getting a full shave here, instead of dividing my custom be-

If JERRY SIMPSON is a prophet, a formid- tween two shops. Go ahead-full shaveable third party organization is to come with next February.

SPOTLETS. The King of Groves has not spilt all his fat in the

The Women's Industrial League may have indersed

The springtime poet Was beard to sign Tailor-liow do you like the blue serge suit made for you? De Long-Don't like it at all !

De Long-Yes: that's why I don't like it. When I wear it I feel as if I had a perfect nt of the blues! The man who strikes day Gould for millions will Architecturel Note. Judge-What trade do you follow? ATE NOTHING FOR 450 DAYS.

Ex-Senator Michael C. Murphy's Great Fight with Death.

the Story for "The Evening World." After a sixteen months' compat with grim death, Col. Michael C. Murphy has won and in concuming him by inches and ounces and had wasted away his body till the round, robust 300-pound figure so well known in every political circle had become but a shadow, a bundle

The history of the sufferings of the plucky e the mion. An EVENING WORLD reporter saw Col. tieth street, this morning.
The man who ate no food for more than fif-justable easy-chair in the sunny back parlor, angel of his sick-chamber, the Colonel drew up | come. the robe, displaying a pair of legs, startling in their emaciation.

at the fleshiest part of the thigh.

neck that supported it. entoving the morning newspapers of which made his home before his illness. he had a half dozen on his lap, us he has had To-duy he was the recipient of a package of

The ex-Senator who sat for thirteen years as reportorial writer to join him in a Perfecto. Then, just as his niece was leaving the Col. Murphy won his title on the field. He my lunch. And, by the way, did the soft-shell clams come ?" The Colonel laughed heartly at the reporter's took of wonderment and said: * Yes, cut anything I like now; but let me tell you that the very happiest moment of my life was THE WAYS OF WOMAN FAIR deasures of the palate for the first time since arly in January, 1890. "I had been promised that I might soon !

nutrition—and that morning I was seized with the idea that I could swallow coffer. "Grace-God bless her!-got it for me, and I drankit. It went down. It staved down. I could scarcely realize it. Liarchy believe it, but I was the proudest man in America, and, sir, I drank three cups of coffee!"

asual way—after so many months in which

These pains would prostrate him for half an hour at a time and recurringe or four times a wings, no doubt, some one has originated a day, though he seemed to be hearty enough series of love knots and bow knots for trim-He consulted Dr. Julius J. Henna, of 123 These bows, copied from the French schools, East Twenty-fifth street, and, speaking of Dr. | are produced in white and black thread lace.

"Dr. Henna declared my trouble to be a failure of the intestines to perform their part in digestion, and he relieved me." But in October, 1889, the trouble returned red roses in front. With a piece of clastic and its increased vigor. An older had formed in a crown limits, it is ready to make a child's the stomach, and then Dr. Henna began a face picturesque.

But his vitality kept him up, though there was a gradual stoppage of the passage from before the back hair is fluished.

One third of a pound of prepared meat, pharmacista, and still prepared induct their personal supervision. Every incredient used is strictly pure, and is the best of its kind it is possible to buy. All the roots and herbs are carefully selected, are ground in our own drugmill, and from the time of purchase until Hood's Sarpaparilla is prepared, everything and roots and herbs are carefully selected, are ground in our own drugmill, and from the time of purchase until Hood's Sarpaparilla is prepared, everything and roots and herbs are carefully selected, are ground in our own drugmill, and from the time of purchase until Hood's Sarpaparilla is prepared, everything and roots and herbs are carefully selected, are ground in our own drugmill, and from the time of purchase until Hood's Sarpaparilla is prepared and his pet boy, too, for considerably less than gine dollars.

The proprietors of the store and herb are carefully could be devised.

The proprietors of the store and herb are carefully established and his pet boy, too, for considerably less than gine dollars.

The proprietors of the store and herb are carefully established and his pet boy, too, for considerably less than gine dollars.

The proprietors of the store and herb are carefully established and his pet boy, too, for considerably less than gine dollars.

The proprietors of the store and herb are carefully established and his pet boy, too, for considerably less than gine dollars.

The proprietors of the store and herb are carefully established and his pet boy, too, for considerably less than gine dollars.

The proprietors of the store and herb are carefully established and his pet boy, too, for considerably less than gine dollars.

The proprietors of the store and herb are carefully established and his pet boy, too, for considerably less than gine dollars.

The proprietors of the store and herb are carefully established and his pet boy, too, for considerably less than gine dollars.

een months was found propped up in an ad- sick man.

In answer to the reporter's involuntary exclamstin, Col. Murphy said briskly:

"Why, I'm fat, now! Fat, air! I weigh 135 pounds. You should have seen me about New Year's. I weighed only ninety pounds that day. I touched rock bottom then. I've been getting better ever since, and in spite of weighed only unterly pounds. Then he took a turn for the better, and has been rapidly relication. In d. 625 Battimore 16 (hicago. 10 il 625 Battimore been getting better ever since, and in spite of even soft-shell crabs.

the fact that I read my own death notice in the His breakfast daily consists of three boiled

It is no exageration to say that Col Murphy's enjoys nair a snau roe, con mean, the mark 100 yards in 101, seconds, knee joint was four inches wider than his leg tatoes and a bottle of Bass's air. His dinners mark 100 yards in 101, seconds. are like any other man's.

"In spite of my long life in politics I haven't sive preparations for its annual Spring games, which take place on Saturday of this week.

The four Eastern clubs of the National League showed up in pretty gowl shape yeaterday, and they all came off victors.

Among the most exciting, events will be the me-mile safety bicycle race and the two-mile ordinary bicycle. Luther Cary, the Princeton ordinary blevels. Luther Cary, the Princeton flyer, will troop bly attempt to equal Ower's record of 94.5 for 100 yards. Both Dohm and Downs, New York Attief of the on-quarter and 200 yards, and it is expected that this race of itself will prove one of it emost excelling of the afternoon. The games commence promptly at 2.30. The Oval may be reached in afteen minutes by train from Grand Central Depot, via New York Central.

Pat Daty, the ex-trainer of the National Athebra Club, of Brooklyn, who is to light Nick Collins to a finish early it June, has not quite a number of fights, he beat Nick Middleton in three rounds; Robert Justice.

Is made with Royal Baking Powder. Always light, firm promises to fluid other employment for the girls.

Presemen's Union No. 51 will have its angust at who has ma tel, on Gree more than the control of the organization. The new officers of the stion are. P. d. toldbis, President John Somerville, Vice-President; John S

FLINT'S FINE FURNITURE. Parlor Furniture.

Bedroom Furniture.

ique oak, mahogany, Ac., at from $18 to $600. Dining Furniture.

Geo. C. Flint Co. FURNITURE MAKERS.

again, with Fall days in May. What we have

The union carpenters of Bayonne colebrated their rictory for a uniform rate of $3 per day and the employment of none but union men by a feast of beard would again adorn his visage. netly. Dorne's specialty company gave a vaudewilder performance.

A very good entertainment was given upon the stage of Worth's Museum yesterday. A number of popular people appeared in specialties, among them being Fielding and Walker, T. J. Helfron, Andy Collum, who is a hoat in binned; James W. Thompson, De Kock and Girard, Charica Bevere and Kitty Smith. The curio balls were full of novelines. The attendance during the day was large.

RUSEN'S PALACE MUSEUM.

The Kings County Republics of General Committee brook by County Republics of Committee brook by County Republics of the Brook Brook Brook Brook Brook Bro

America.

A bra ch of Carroll J. Wright's Bureau of Labor States has been opened at the New York Peak Office States has been opened at the New York Peak Office States have been opened at the New York Peak Office States have been opened at the New York American States have been an Erockiyn and New York, and it is too drearly familiar to the eyes.

Factory Inspector Lawrence T. Fell, of New Jersey, in his annul report, just published, complains the have ladd from the city authorities except in Newark, Orange and Hoboken.

Lines are plentiful on the streets just at present. They are fragrant and pretty in however. At the crossing at Twenty-third street I saw and if they get out a paper will probably make it a brisk, newsy sheet.

Stokes.